The Davis Gallery Committee reviews proposals every year with two exhibitions per quarter and one exhibition during summer quarter (7 total). For the 2022-23 year, the following exhibition slots are currently available:

- November 1 – December 20 2022

- January 9 – February 10 2023

- April 3 – May 7 2023

- July 3 - August 4 2023

Which slot(s) would work for your exhibition? If you are open to multiple slots, list your choices in order of the most favorable to the least favorable.

What is the title and/or scope of your proposed exhibition? Please be as specific as possible in this statement of your curatorial vision – what is the conceptual, experimental, aesthetic, and/or narrative etc. goals of your proposal.

The Davis Gallery was created to support interdisciplinary exhibitions and programming. Please also describe how your proposal addresses at least one of the following areas. Proposals that engage with multiple values are encouraged as well.

- student-driven (i.e. student work and/or student-organized)
- community collaboration (i.e. social issues, art and ____, cross-departmental partnerships)
- intergenerational (participation with or of a diverse set of age groups)
- relevant to the greater DU community on and off campus (student, faculty, staff, alumni)

This statement should be 500-700 words. If you need more room, feel free to attach a separate document and indicate so below.

Is this exhibition affiliated with any university department, coursework, or campus organization? If so, please indicate which. If you are not affiliated with any, simply write "not affiliated."

Have you ever organized, or assisted with organizing , an exhibition before? If so, please explain your experiences below.

Do you have specific artists or artworks in mind you would like to display if you have not stated them already? If so, please indicate these selections below. If you do not know specifics yet, please indicate when you will know.

Thank you for your interest in being included in the next quarter exhibition schedule at the Davis Gallery. Exhibition Proposals are reviewed on a quarterly basis, so you might not hear back from us immediately after you submit your exhibition. For our review and selection announcement schedule for the current academic year please visit our web page.

Please send this completed form with digital signatures and any supplementary materials you may choose to include to davisgallery@du.edu. Note that proposals must include advising faculty signatures to be considered.

By signing the document below, I have answered the questions in this exhibition proposal to the best of my abilities, have read the information provided in it thoroughly, and agree to the stipulations addressed herein. Please note that in the case of multiple exhibition organizers being involved, each organizer must sign this document.
